Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1 and 7-9, drawn to an isolated nucleic acid having the sequence of SEQ ID NO: 1 and a recombinant DNA construct and cell containing said construct, classified in class 536, subclass 23.1.
 - II. Claims 2-4, drawn to an expression product, which has the amino acid sequence of SEQ ID NO: 2, classified in class 530, subclass 350.
 - III. Claim 5, drawn to an antibody having the amino acid sequence of SEQ ID NO: 4, classified in class 530, subclass 387.1.
 - IV. Claim 6, drawn to an antibody having the amino acid sequence of SEQ ID NO: 5, classified in class 436, subclass 86.
 - V. Claims 10-12, drawn to a method for screening comprising contacting protein, SEQ ID NO: 2 with an antibody, classified in class 435, subclass 7.1.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Groups I-IV are structurally and functionally different products, which are made by different methods and have different uses. The examination of all groups would require different searches in the U.S. Patent Shoes and the scientific literature and would require the consideration of different patentability issues.

The product of Group I is DNA, deoxyribonucleic acids, unbranched polymers composed of four subunits, whereas the expression product of Group II is a linear order of amino acid residues. The antibody products of Groups III and IV are a complex of glycoproteins. And even though both antibodies bind the same amino acid sequence they differ in amino acids and structure.

Inventions III, IV and V are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case, either antibody of Inventions III and IV can be used in the method of Invention V.

3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

Art Unit: 1643

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Alana M. Harris, Ph.D. whose telephone number is (571) 272-0831. The Examiner works a flexible schedule, however she can normally be reached between the hours of 7:30 am to 6:30 pm with alternate Fridays off.

Art Unit: 1643

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Larry R. Helms, Ph.D. can be reached on (571) 272-0832. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
